

Richard Henry Gesualdi

GESUALDI, RICHARD HENRY, 76, of Cranston, passed away Wednesday.

Born in Providence, he was the son of the late Henry and Anna (D'Onofrio) Gesualdi.

Richard worked as a foreman and manager at International Packaging Corp. of Pawtucket and as an attendant at Metropark of Providence after retiring. He was an avid car enthusiast and New England Patriots fan. He was a great, loving family man and grandfather.

He is survived by a daughter, Lisa Brouillard; a son, Richard Gesualdi, Jr.; and four grandchildren, Sarah Jean and Katie Lee Palumbo, and Olivia Rose and Emma Elisa Gesualdi.

Relatives and friends are invited to attend visitation on Monday at 9:00 AM in Holy Ghost Church, Atwells Avenue, Providence, followed by a Mass of Christian Burial at 10:00 AM. Burial will be private. Flowers are respectfully omitted.
